

Humanitarian aspect:

About 1.5 million Ukrainians, primarily women and children are currently in Russia and cannot return home. Their relatives cannot get in touch with them, Deputy Prime Minister for European and Euro-Atlantic Integration Olga Stefanishyna said during an event on the sidelines of UNGA. Stefanishyna added that now more than ever, it is important to use all international human rights protection instruments and redouble efforts to prevent the forceful exploitation of Ukrainians.

On the evening of September 26, the Russian army attacked Kryvyi Rih, the head of Dnipropetrovsk Oblast Military Administration Valentyn Reznichenko reported. "The Russians hit the airport with an X-59 missile. Its infrastructure was destroyed," Reznichenko wrote. No people were injured during the attack.

On the night of September 26, Russian troops fired 130 shells at four communities in Dnipropetrovsk Oblast, namely Nikopol, Marhanets, Chervonhrigoriv, and Myriv. As a result, civilian objects and power lines were damaged, leaving 3000 families without electricity.

On September 26, from 04:50, the enemy attacked Ochakiv, Mykolayiv Oblast. Head of Mykolayiv Oblast Military Administration Vitaliy Kim said there were no casualties. Around 01:00, the Russian forces shelled the village of Khrystoforivka; more than 15 houses and a school were damaged. Again, there were no victims, according to preliminary reports.

As a result of a kamikaze drone attack on a military target in Odesa, a large-scale fire and the detonation of ammunition took place. The evacuation of the civilian population was organized. There were no casualties. Odesa was again attacked in the evening.

As a result of the Russian shelling, 3 civilians were killed and 11 wounded in Donetsk Oblast on September 25.

On Monday, September 26, Russian forces shelled the center of Kramatorsk in Donetsk Oblast, Kramatorsk Mayor Oleksandr Honcharenko said. High-rise buildings and a square were damaged. 4 people were injured, and one person is in serious condition.

During September 25, the Russian forces shelled Kupyanskyi, Chuguyivskyi, Izyumskyi, Kharkivskyi, and Bohodukhivskyi districts of Kharkiv Oblast. According to the regional Center for Emergency Medical Assistance, 6 people were hospitalized during the day.

Around 2 p.m., the Russian forces launched a rocket attack on Pervomaisky, Kharkiv Oblast, two private houses were damaged, and 7 people, including a 15-year-old girl, were killed, Mayor of the city Mykola Baksheev reported.

In the village of Lyptsi, Kharkiv Oblast, the security service of Ukraine discovered a location where representatives of the so-called "people's militia of the LPR" and the Russian military kept and tortured local residents who refused to cooperate with the occupying authorities and then forcibly took them to Russia. Investigation to identify all victims and torturers continues.

On September 26, the electricity supply was restored in the recently liberated Balakiya, Kharkiv Oblast. Izyum is next to be connected to the power supply, Deputy Head of the Presidential Office Kyrylo Tymoshenko said. Administrative and banking services, local self-government, etc. will be able to work effectively.

According to EWL Group's survey of Ukrainian refugees in Poland, the Czech Republic, and Romania, most of those who fled the war to these countries plan to return to Ukraine. In particular, 58% of Ukrainians in Poland say they intend to return to Ukraine. Another 30% are going to stay in Poland for a longer period, and 12% want to move to other countries. In the Czech Republic, 56% of respondents say they intend to return to Ukraine. 24% intend to stay in the Czech Republic longer, and 20% plan to leave for another country. In Romania, the percentage of those who plan to return is 54%, 28% intend to stay in Romania for the time being, and another 18% intend to leave for another country, Evropeyska Pravda reported.

Occupied territories

According to Ivan Fedorov, the legally elected Ukrainian Mayor of temporarily occupied Melitopol, Zaporizhzhya Oblast, due to the catastrophically low turnout of "voters," members of the occupation "voting commissions" began making repeated door-to-door rounds. The small number of residents of the city, who opened their doors to impostors, are forced to vote for absent family members and neighbors as well as those who evacuated from the occupation.

The head of the Russian occupying administration in Zaporizhzhya Oblast said that once the sham referenda in the occupied territories are done, their residents will be drafted into the Russian army. He claimed it was going to be a "volunteer" battalion.

More than 2,000 former Ukrainian military servicemen from the Autonomous Republic of Crimea and Sevastopol were mobilized into the Russian Armed Forces, Rear Admiral Vyacheslav Rodionov, Deputy Commander of the Black Sea Fleet for Military-Political Work, said.

Operational situation

It is the 215th day of the strategic air-ground offensive operation of the Russian Armed Forces against Ukraine (in the official terminology of the Russian Federation – "operation to protect Donbas").

The enemy continues to concentrate its efforts on establishing full control over the territory of Donetsk Oblast, maintaining control over the captured territories, and disrupting the intensive actions of the Ukrainian troops in certain directions. It fires at the positions of the Ukrainian troops along the contact line, tries to recapture lost positions, and continuously conducts aerial reconnaissance. It inflicts strikes on civilian infrastructure and peaceful residential buildings, violating the norms of international humanitarian law, the laws, and customs of war.

The threat of Russian air and missile strikes persists throughout the entire territory of Ukraine. Thus, the Russian military has launched 5 missile and 12 air strikes over the past day and carried out more than 83 MLRS attacks. The Russian forces employed 4 assault UAVs for strikes on civilian infrastructure targets.

More than 40 Ukrainian towns and villages were affected by the Russian fire, in particular, Kupyansk, Kramatorsk, Bakhmut, Krasnohorivka, Maryinka, Kamianka, Kurakhove, Pavlivka, Zaporizhzhya, Nikopol, Ochakiv, Mykolaiv, and Odesa, the village of Oleksandrivka located near the state border was shelled in Sumy Oblast.

The partial mobilization, announced by the Russian military-political leadership, is continuing in the Russian Federation. Rostov Oblast is closed for entry and exit. Persons who are not found at their residence are ordered via their relatives to appear within three days. Personnel arriving at assembly points in Belgorod Oblast are given a list of what they need to purchase at their own expense, in particular warm clothing.

The Russian authorities are carrying out similar measures in the temporarily occupied territories of Ukraine. On September 24, the training of mobilized soldiers began in Sevastopol, based on the automobile battalion of the Russian Black Sea Fleet.

In the city of Svatove, Luhansk Oblast, mobilization notices are handed out to persons who have reached the age of eighteen. Truck drivers are immediately sent to military units.

Aviation of the Ukrainian Defense Forces carried out 33 strikes. As a result, it was confirmed that 25 areas of the Russian manpower and military equipment concentration and 8 anti-aircraft missile systems positions were hit. In addition, Ukrainian Air Defense units destroyed one Su-25 aircraft, a Mi-8 helicopter, and 2 Russian UAVs.

Ukrainian Missile forces and artillery have inflicted fire damage on 6 enemy command and control points, 12 personnel and military equipment concentration areas, 2 air defense positions, 3 artillery positions, 6 ammunition depots, and 9 other important targets.

The morale and psychological state of the personnel of the invasion forces remain low.

Ukraine, general news

Since the "Business Relocation" program launch in Ukraine, more than 745 enterprises have been relocated to safe territories, and more than 550 have started operations, Deputy Minister of Economy Tetyana Berezhna informed.

Kyiv does not plan to call up more people to the Armed Forces of Ukraine in response to mobilization in the Russian Federation since Ukraine has already created reserves "through the system of territorial defense," adviser to the office of the President of Ukraine Mykhailo Podolyak told the Tagesschau program of the German ARD TV channel.

International diplomatic aspect

The US commits $457.5 million in civilian security assistance to enhance the efforts of Ukrainian law enforcement and criminal justice agencies to improve their operational capacity and save lives. A portion of the new aid will support the Ukrainian government's efforts to document, investigate, and prosecute atrocities perpetrated by Russia's forces.

"We found a large mass burial with half a thousand people [in Izyum, previously reported] ... They [Ukrainian law-enforcement agencies] found two more mass burials, large graves with hundreds of people. It is also about the small town of Izyum. There are two more mass burials in the small town," said President Zelensky. Ukraine's Security Service has found yet another torture chamber in the liberated village of Lyptsi, where Russian troops and collaborators had been torturing Ukrainians during the occupation. So far, as many as 18 Russian torture chambers in Kharkiv Oblast have been discovered, with some 1,000 Russian servicemen involved in war crimes identified by the Ukrainian police.

"We must show that those who pick up a gun or load a missile do not benefit from impunity," emphasized Karim Khan, Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court. Forty-three states referred to the situation in Ukraine ICC. In September, Estonia, Finland, Ireland, Denmark, Italy, Poland, France, Romania, Sweden, the US, and Germany filed declarations of joining the ICJ case concerning allegations of Russia committing genocide in Ukraine.

President Zelensky thanked the US for providing Ukraine with a national advanced surface-to-air missile system (NASAMS). However, it's unclear whether the first system has been delivered to Ukraine or Zelensky referred to the decision to send two systems within two months.

As a result of negotiations on a new spending bill, an agreement was reached to include about $12 billion in new aid to Ukraine in response to a request from the Biden administration.

The UK has announced a package of sanctions in response to the Russian regime's illegal sham "referenda" in Ukraine. Sanctions target top Russian officials enforcing the illegal votes in four Ukrainian regions and a few oligarchs. Among those sanctioned are 55 board members and CEOs from entities that "continue to bankroll the Russian war machine," Gazprombank, Sberbank, and Sovcombank. "Sham referendums held at the barrel of a gun cannot be free or fair, and we will never recognize their results. They follow a clear pattern of violence, intimidation, torture, and forced deportations in the areas of Ukraine Russia has seized", stated the Foreign Secretary.

Russia, relevant news

Russia plans to carry out massive cyberattacks on critical infrastructure facilities in Ukraine; in particular, it intends to target the energy industry to amplify the effect of the earlier shelling campaign. It also plans to increase the number of DDoS attacks on institutions in Poland and the Baltic states, the press service of the Main Intelligence Directorate of the Ministry of Defense of Ukraine said.

In Makhachkala (the capital of Dagestan, Russian Federation), 101 people were detained for anti-mobilization actions, independent protest monitoring group OVD-Info said. The detentions that could be seen on video looked very harsh. According to estimates of the Russian BBC service, at least 301 servicemen from Dagestan died in the war with Ukraine. This exceeds the death toll among Moscow servicemen by more than 10 times, although the population of Moscow is about five times that of Dagestan.

A 25-year-old draftee shot the head of the draft commission in the city of Ust Ilimsk, Irkutsk Oblast, the Russian media reported. The official was wounded but is reported to have survived.

Nearly 17,000 Russian nationals crossed the border into Finland over the past weekend, up 80% from a week earlier, Reuters reported, citing the country's authorities.

About 3.5 thousand cars are waiting to pass at the Verkhny Lars checkpoint between Russia and North Ossetia (Georgia), the press service of the regional government head reported.

Dushanbe City Bank, one of the largest banks in Tajikistan, suspended the service of the Russian "Mir" payment system cards.
